MOTU TAPU, BORA BORA

SEGMENT 2

From Papeete to Auckland

WAY OF THE WAYFINDER

Long before maps existed, the Pacific gave rise to the world's greatest navigators. They crossed thousands of miles of open ocean guided by an ancient wisdom that shaped the course of human history. This is the way of the Polynesian wayfinders — who once studied the patterns of waves and read the stars like scripture. These are their waters. The lagoons of Tahiti and Bora Bora, glowing a thousand shades of blue. The cave pools of Samoa and the coral kingdoms of Fiji. Islands reached by those who trusted the dialogue between sea and sky to lead them home. And now, you sail in their wake, entering a world where nature is a compass and intuition is a way of life. 🌀

NADI, FIJI

From Papeete to Auckland

Journey through the heart of French Polynesia, where volcanoes pierce cloudless skies, vanilla wafts on the breeze, and jewel-toned lagoons frame the world's most breathtaking islands. Overnights in Papeete and Bora Bora invite you to linger beneath fuchsia sunsets and star-studded skies, while a visit to Motu Tapu offers rare seclusion. In Raiatea, Maohi heritage comes into focus at the UNESCO-listed Marae Taputapuātea and through close encounters with local artisans. Continue on through Samoa and Fiji, with an overnight in Lautoka bringing warm village greetings, time-honored rituals, and sweeping views — before the Bay of Islands signals your arrival in New Zealand.

BORA BORA

JAN 25 - 26

Between lush peaks, dreamy seas, and silky sands, Bora Bora has long lived up to its reputation as the Pearl of the Pacific. Cruise the island's iconic Blue Lagoon on a private outrigger, watching the sunset paint turquoise waters tangerine. Arrive at a secluded motu for delicious bites and beverages. Then gather around a fire to hear local legends and gaze at the Milky Way twinkling with remarkable clarity. An overnight in Bora Bora allows you to fully absorb her healing energy and otherworldly beauty.

RAIATEA

JAN 27

Known as the spiritual center of Polynesia, Raiatea opens a window to the region's ancestral past. Visit the UNESCO-listed Marae Taputapuātea, a prominent archeological site once central to ancient navigation, indigenous rituals, and cultural exchange across the Pacific. Explore Maohi traditions on a sightseeing tour, where you'll learn about the cultivation of black pearls and enjoy a tasting at a local vanilla plantation. From ceremonial grounds to open seas, this idyllic island draws you into a culture deeply rooted in nature.

LAUTOKA

FEB 4 - 5

One night in Lautoka is all it takes to fall in love with Fiji. Marvel at panoramic views across Nadi Bay, where tropical islands stretch toward rolling emerald hills. In the village of Yavuna, join a traditional kava ceremony amid heartfelt serenades. Then return to sea with a lasting impression of Fiji's natural wonders, cherished customs, and welcoming people.

DOUBTFUL SOUND, NEW ZEALAND

SEGMENT 3

From Auckland to Melbourne

THE WILD & THE WORLDLY

Few corners of the world hold such wildly different versions of beauty in such close proximity. Glacial valleys and gallery walls. Ancient kauri forests and vintage thrift shops. The drama of Milford Sound at dawn, mist rising from the sea between granite cliffs. Then, Sydney emerges like a mirage on the harbor – sleek, radiant, utterly electrifying. Move between the untamed and the sophisticated, the raw and the refined. Embrace an endless spectrum of possibilities, from the jagged edges of Fiordland to the artistic soul of Tasmania. Discover a duality that resists definition as you explore two sides of the same extraordinary region, each as compelling as the other. ❖

From Auckland to Melbourne

Begin with an overnight in Auckland — a city as culturally rich as it is naturally beautiful, from volcanic horizons to Māori landmarks. Wander Tauranga’s fertile valleys and cinematic hill country before cruising the reflective waters of Doubtful and Milford Sounds through the UNESCO-listed wilderness of Te Wāhipounamu. Sydney beckons with its iconic harbor, golden beaches, and cosmopolitan spirit. An overnight stay invites you to take in the brilliance of it all. Then spend a night in Hobart, exploring historic sites, roaming rugged coastlines, and savoring legendary seafood. Vibrant, eclectic, and brimming with life, this part of the world surprises you at every turn.

AUCKLAND

FEB 11 - 12

Rising dramatically from a landscape forged by volcanoes, Auckland invites exploration and rewards curiosity. Roam the city's sprawling volcanic fields, connect with Māori heritage in local galleries and museums, and stroll along a buzzing waterfront lined by world-class restaurants. With an overnight stay, you'll have time to venture into the lush Waikato countryside and visit the famed Hobbiton Movie Set, where Tolkien's Middle-Earth comes to life among the rolling hills of Matamata.

DOUBTFUL SOUND

FEB 18

Set within the UNESCO-protected wilderness of Te Wāhipounamu, Doubtful Sound stretches deeper and farther than any other fiord in Fiordland — far removed from the modern world. Towering cliffs plunge into glassy depths, delicate waterfalls thread like silver ribbons down sheer rock, and over it all hangs a profound silence that is difficult to describe and impossible to forget. Glide across the mirrored waters of this remote haven, keeping watch for dolphins, fur seals, and rare Fiordland crested penguins.

HOBART

FEB 24 - 25

Tucked at the southern edge of Australia, Hobart is a city of wild coastlines, rugged highlands, and a thriving food culture that draws from both. Trek across UNESCO-protected Tasmanian landscapes, step back in time at the immaculately preserved Port Arthur Historic Site, and embark on a Deep-to-Dish Cruise — a spectacular seven-species ocean-to-plate degustation along the River Derwent, guided by local fishing families who have worked these waters for generations.

Australia is unmistakably defined by multitudes. Steel blue tides stretch between eucalyptus forests and limestone caves. Sun-warmed vineyards dissolve into breezy beach towns where locals chase the surf at dawn. The scent of espresso drifts through mural-lined laneways in cities that wear their creativity with pride. Currents of contrast run deep through a land as rich and layered as the ocean around it. Surrender to the steady pull of waves that carry you from one unexpected world to the next. Each with vastly different stories to tell. All unfolding across a continent in constant motion.

From Melbourne to Benoa

Follow the open ocean along Australia's southern shores and up its western edge, where cultural landmarks give way to shifting seascapes. Melbourne sets the tone with grand civic architecture and UNESCO-listed gardens. Watch fairy penguins march along the shores of Phillip Island in a beloved nightly ritual. Venture inland from Adelaide for a taste of the region's prized wine country before continuing west to Esperance and Albany – coastal towns known for their turquoise bays and maritime charm. Limestone caverns and windswept coasts guide the way to Fremantle, a historic port that marks a key turning point in your journey.

PHILLIP ISLAND

FEB 28

Arrive at Phillip Island to witness one of the country's most endearing spectacles – the Penguin Parade. Every evening, the world's tiniest penguins emerge from the surf and waddle home to their nests in perfectly imperfect procession. Watch every step, shuffle, and curious glance up close from a rare, eye-level vantage-point, peering through an underground viewing window along the penguins' favorite path. These adorable creatures have a way of stopping even the most seasoned traveler in their tracks.

Linger among vine-laced hills, raise a glass to the land, and discover why this storied valley remains at the heart of Australian food and wine.

BUSSELTON

Set along Western Australia's sapphire-hued coast, Busselton is distinguished by its unique geology and subterranean wonders. Take in panoramic views of sculpted landscapes from Cape Naturaliste Lighthouse, a historic beacon guiding mariners since 1904. Venture beyond the headlands to Ngilgi Cave, where cathedral-like chambers reveal intricate stalactites, helictites, and shawls. Above and below ground, Busselton invites a deeper appreciation for the power and poetry of the natural world.

Along the way, each encounter reveals various stages of rehabilitation, offering a rare window into conservation work unfolding in real time.

MUARA

MAR 20

The coastal town of Muara, Brunei — and our newest port of call — invites you to gentle afternoons along the South China Sea. It is a place where the Sultanate's values of calm, balance, and community are felt rather than proclaimed. Anchored between a working harbor and open shoreline, Muara balances its maritime life with moments of stillness. Whether as a peaceful retreat or a thoughtful first impression of the country, the city reveals Brunei's more intimate side — best experienced slowly, by the sea.

BOHOL

SEGMENT 8

From Hong Kong to Singapore

ACROSS TEMPLE KINGDOMS

In stone sanctuaries, centuries-old capitals, and sculpted limestone karsts, East and Southeast Asia emerge in luminous detail. Drift through street-food avenues alive with smoky seafood barbecues and after-dark energy. Witness dazzling emerald waters along palm-lined shores. And walk through imperial cities where history is not preserved, but lived – illuminated by lantern light, twilight ceremony, and sacred spaces. Every pause, every harbor, offers an interlude of reflection and ease. Move across time and nations as modern culture and historical truths unveil prevailing legacies. 🏡

From Hong Kong to Singapore

Journey beyond China, to cities filled with momentum, villages brimming with tradition, and shorelines cast in untouched beauty. Vietnam's Ha Long Bay opens onto limestone karsts rising from the sea and jungle-topped peaks. Across the country, Ho Chi Minh City reveals a youthful energy that speaks in scent and sound — from early-morning flower markets to late-night street food. Sihanoukville, a newly featured destination, brings you to laid-back coastal living and a moment to enjoy natural beauty. And in Laem Chabang, learn the ways of Thai craftsmanship with wooden architecture and symbolic storytelling.

HA LONG BAY

APR 28 - 29

As day-trippers depart, Ha Long Bay settles into a quiet rhythm. Lantern-lit boats glide across still waters and limestone peaks become silhouettes against a star-streaked sky. With an overnight to wander, you're free to venture into hidden grottos, revealing cathedrals of stone like a secret waiting to be discovered. Named Ha Long — “The Descending Dragon” — the bay’s legend lives on in islets carved by jeweled dragon tails. Glide beneath towering cliffs and into sheltered lagoons where myth and majesty meet.

HO CHI MINH CITY

MAY 2 - 3

Capture Ho Chi Minh City as locals live it during an overnight stay — where Vietnamese markets invite spontaneous gatherings over shared plates. Streets fill with motorbikes, glass towers rise beside French-era facades, and cafés spill onto sidewalks. Color and fragrance come alive at Ho Thi Ky Flower Market, brimming with roses, orchids, and marigolds. Taste the city’s flavorful seafood at District 4, a local favorite. And stroll through Vinh Khanh Street, where barbecue and conversation carry on well into the night.

LAEM CHABANG

MAY 7 - 8

Journey from Laem Chabang to Thailand’s river capital of Bangkok with an overnight stay. Discover Thai life and ceremonial tradition in the fragrant blooms and hand-strung garlands of Pak Khlong Talad Flower Market. Drift along the Chao Phraya River as Bangkok unfolds at an unhurried pace — and the spires of the striking Temple of Dawn come into focus. On the banks of the river, ICONSIAM brings art, design, and traditional cuisine together in one of Bangkok’s most celebrated destinations.

The image shows the interior of a highly ornate Thai temple, likely Wat Phnom in Bangkok. The space is filled with intricate carvings and statues. In the foreground, a large, dark stone pillar is heavily carved with figures and patterns. To its right, another pillar features a prominent seated Buddha figure. The background is a vast, brightly lit hall with more pillars and a ceiling adorned with golden lights. The overall atmosphere is one of grandeur and historical significance.
